Treasure Cay is a private resort community located on the Island of Great Abaco, one of the Bahamian Out Islands.

Treasure Cay is known for having one of the world's Top Ten Beaches according to National Geographic Magazine.

Upon your arrival you'll find Sanddollar Dreams just steps from this very beach.

The Island of Great Abaco and the surrounding Cays are often referred to as the "Family Islands" due to their laid back lifestyle. Here, you can easily explore the surrounding cays of Green Turtle, Man-O-War, Great Guana, and visit the famous lighthouse in Hopetown on Elbow Cay by boat or ferry. For the beachcomber strolling on the 3.5 mile white private sand beach, you'll find sanddollars, starfish and a variety of shells.

If you're looking for casinos, discos, big hotels, conventions, or traffic, then Treasure Cay may not be your destination of choice. If you enjoy swimming, diving or snorkeling in crystal clear waters, walking mostly deserted white sand beaches, exploring uninhabited islands, and meeting some of the most relaxed,

It will not be long before the Treasure Cay is for you. Here time moves slow, the people are relaxed, and you will have the time, shopping, gallery, tennis courts,
